Kirsten Hytopoulos
Councilperson, City of Bainbridge Island

Over the 18 years she has lived, worked and raised her children on Bainbridge Island, Kirsten has served the community in many roles including collaborative attorney, mediator, citizen activist, city councilperson and mayor.

Kirsten is currently serving a second term on the City Council, having previously served from 2010-2013 immediately following the city’s change to the Council-Manager form of government. During her first term, Kirsten was selected by the council as the city’s second council elected mayor under the new form of government.

Kirsten lives in the south end on the Island with her two nearly grown twin boys and their younger teenage sister.
