What is a qualified applicant?

A qualified applicant is a person who can receive a certificate.

Who are the qualified applicants for certification of birth resulting in stillbirth certificate?

Qualified applicant for a certification of birth resulting in stillbirth is the individual who gave birth to the child.

Are you the qualified applicant listed above to the certification of birth resulting in stillbirth you are requesting?

If yes, continue. You will need to provide identity and proof of eligibility documentation.

If you are not a qualified applicant, STOP. You cannot get a Certification of Birth Resulting in Stillbirth

What is proof of eligibility documentation?

Proof of eligibility documentation are documents that link you to the requested certification of birth resulting in stillbirth.

1. If you are listed on the record and your identity documentation links you to the record, your proof of eligibility requirement is met.
2. If you are not listed on the record or your identity documentation does not link you to the record, you must provide additional documentation to prove eligibility.

What documents will Kitsap Public Health accept to prove eligibility?

KPHD will accept the following documents to prove eligibility:

- Copies of vital records such as certifications of birth, death, marriage, and divorce that link you to the requested record.
- Copies of certified court orders from a court of competent jurisdiction linking you to the record.

For specific examples about what documents to provide based on your relationship, see the Eligibility Documentation Matrix.

What identity documentation will Kitsap Public Health accept?

KPHD will accept a copy of:

- One government issued identity document (must contain photo, full name, and date of birth) that is current or expired less than 60 days; or
- If you do not have a government issued identity document, then at least two alternate documents from the alternate list. The alternate documents must contain matching first and last names and addresses, or in combination contains full name, date of birth, and photograph.

For a complete list of acceptable identity documents, see the Acceptable List of Identity Documents.

What information is required?

The following information is required as it appears on the certification of birth resulting in stillbirth:

- First and last name of the subject of the record
- First and last name of the individual who gave birth
- Date of delivery
- City or county where the delivery occurred

What if I cannot provide the required documents to prove eligibility, do not have identity documents from the acceptable list, or know the required information?

If you cannot meet the requirements, you may submit a request for an exception. This process allows the applicant to explain why you cannot provide the required documentation or information.

What address do I put on the order form?

The address you provide on the order form must be the address you are REGISTERED to receive mail at. If that is not an option, put the name of the individual registered at the address and then put "in care of" before your name (Ex. John Doe C/O Jane Doe, 111 Israel Rd SE, Tumwater, WA 98501). If filling in the form by hand, make sure to print clearly to avoid processing delays.

What form of payment is accepted?

We accept Visa or Mastercard, cashier checks or money orders for requests mailed to Kitsap Public Health. Make sure your cashier check or money order is made payable to KPHD.

Important Note: No refunds will be given if a record could not be located or the documentation you provided did not prove you were eligible to receive a birth certificate.
